K. Kristen Cheung's school work for marking

The two foxes met on the edge of the forrest at dusk. Snow had fallen heavilly for days. It had been a long, bitter winter and they had scarsely eaten for weaks. They were fammished. The only answer was Mr Christophers chickens. Naturelly, the foxes were really temted, but how were they to alude the ferocios guard dogs? The dogs had been noticebly quiet recently, so perhaps they were'nt there anymore. They crept towards the chickens, gradualy nearing their pray. They came across a fence. Exsitedly, they began to crawl underneeth. Suddernly there was a spark and they lept up in the air, there fur standing on end. They had been electrokuted! They scuttled into the night, still hungry.
