OBJECTIVE

Driven and accomplished educator with extensive expertise in education, including proficiency in assessment coordination across diverse educational landscapes in Australia and the UAE. A proud alumnus of the esteemed University of Sydney, my mission is centered on fostering the holistic growth of students. Infused with a zeal for exploration and cultural immersion, I seamlessly blend my innate passion for English language and literature with a global perspective gained through travel. I am poised to leverage my refined communication, interpersonal finesse, and adept organizational prowess to inspire excellence and drive impactful outcomes in any educational environment.
